"TAORMINA AND THE BEST OF SICILY"

With visits to Mt Etna, Catania, Syracuse, the Greek Temples of Agrigento, and Agira Canadian War Cemetery

11 days, from Thursday, November 14, to Sunday, November 24, 2018

Enjoy la dolce vita in one of the finest resorts in southern Europe, situated on the coast of Sicily, the biggest island in the Mediterranean! Perched spectacularly on a steep hill, Taormina features ancient Greco-Roman, Byzantine and medieval monuments, lush vegetation, and a fabulous view of the coast and of Sicily's huge volcano, Mount Etna. You will stay in a first-class hotel and enjoy excursions to wonderful towns and monuments, including the Greek temples of Agrigento, the historical cities of Catania and Syracuse, the slopes of Mt Etna, and the Canadian War Cemetery at Agira. The tour host is historian Jacques R. Pauwels, PhD, author of 'Beneath the Dust of Time: A History of the Names of Peoples and Places' (London, 2009), who will lecture about the history of Sicily from the time of the prehistoric Siculi people, who gave their name to the island, to Sicily's liberation at the end of WW II by Allied, including Canadian, forces.

Tour cost from Toronto, based on double occupancy: $3,895 - single occupancy supplement: $585
'Land only': $2,865 (from Catania Airport upon arrival of the group flight on November 15, back to Catania Airport in time for the departure of the return group flight on November 24)

ITINERARY:

Day 1 – Thursday, November 14: Evening departure from Toronto to Munich with Air Canada. Dinner and a light breakfast will be served on board.

Day 2 - Friday, November 15: Morning arrival in Munich, and connecting flight to Catania, Sicily. Transfer by private coach to Taormina, where we check into the fine 4-star/first-class Hotel Excelsior Palace, our home for the next nine nights. The hotel is located in a Mediterranean park with superb views of the sea and Mount Etna, and very close to the Porta Catania, entrance to the old town (<https://www.excelsiorpalacetaormina.it>).

We will be staying in superior rooms with a lateral view of the sea; please note that single participants will be accommodated in “doubles for single use,” i.e. rooms featuring the same size and sea view as the double and twin rooms. Time to settle in and relax before dinner in our hotel.

The town of Taormina is a natural fortress, historically of great strategic and political importance, but it is also one of the most beautiful resorts in Sicily, Italy, and even all of Europe! It is spectacularly situated in a verdant setting of lush Mediterranean vegetation on a high and steep hill overlooking the blue waters of the Ionian Sea and, in the distance, the mighty hulk of Mount Etna . . . In the 1800s, Taormina, like Capri, became a Mediterranean magnet for members of the European elite doing the “Grand Tour”. The city’s first important foreign tourist was Johann Wolfgang Goethe, and he was followed by Oscar Wilde, Nicholas I of Russia, and Friedrich Nietzsche (who wrote ‘Thus Spoke Zarathustra’ here), Richard Wagner. Otto Geleng, a German landscape painter, settled here and his work made the town and Sicily famous throughout Europe. In the early 20th century, the town became a colony of expatriate artists, writers and intellectuals, including Bertrand Russell, Tennessee Williams, D. H. Lawrence, Truman Capote, and Jean Cocteau. Taormina is featured on UNESCO’s tentative list of World Heritage Sites (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/tentativelists/1164>).

Day 3 - Saturday, November 16: After breakfast, we visit Taormina’s major historical monument, the superb hilltop Greco-Roman theatre, with spectacular views of Mt Etna and the coast. Then we explore the picturesque old town itself, featuring remains of Roman and Byzantine monuments, such as the Naumachia, a Roman cistern, the medieval Duomo (Cathedral), churches, castles, palaces; and let’s not forget the fine shops and lively cafés along Corso Umberto, the vibrant pedestrian main street, a former Roman road, which bisects the centre of the town between the two ancient city gates, Porta Messina and Porta Catania, via the charming Piazza Piazza IX Aprile, the town’s main square, dominated by the Clock Tower or Porta di Mezzo. The afternoon is free to explore beautiful Taormina on your own. Dinner again in the hotel.

Day 4 - Sunday, November 17: This morning we tour the slopes of Mount Etna, the massive 3,330-meter high volcano – Europe’s highest! – That dominates the entire island of Sicily; the mountain is now classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site (<https://whc.unesco.org/en/list/1427>). This excursion features desolate lunar landscapes of molten lava sprinkled with ruins of homes abandoned during recent eruptions, but also prosperous villages whose inhabitants rely on the rich volcanic soil to produce wonderful products such as wine, honey, cheese, and fruit. We also pause at the Sapienza Research Station, situated at an altitude of almost 2,000 meters, to inspect the Monti Silvestri, cones formed by eruptions during the 1980s. Group lunch of delicious Sicilian specialties in a winery on the slopes of Mt Etna, with great views (weather permitting) of the coast and the Ionian Sea below!

Day 5 - Monday, November 18: Morning excursion along the scenic ‘Coast of the Cyclops,’ associated with the mythological adventures of Ulysses, to the seaport of Catania, the island’s biggest city (after the capital, Palermo); as the birthplace of composer Vincenzo Bellini, it is also considered to be Sicily’s cultural hub. Visits to Cathedral Square with the baroque Fountain of the Elephant, emblem of the city, and the amazing fish market. Also some time to shop along the elegant main street, Via Etnea. Return to Taormina in the afternoon.

If time permits, we may briefly visit the village of Savoca, where some memorable scenes of The Godfather were filmed.

Day 6 - Tuesday, November 19: After breakfast, we take a city bus for a short ride to Castel Mola, a picturesque village perched on top of a steep hill even higher than the promontory of Taormina! We explore its narrow alleys and quaint piazzas, and from the ancient town walls we will enjoy fabulous views of Taormina, the coast, and of course Mt Etna! A local specialty is almond wine, to be tasted in one of the local bars. Castel Mola also features many trattorias and ristoranti where you may want to linger for lunch. Afterwards, you can take the bus back down to Taormina, or perhaps walk the scenic distance of just about 3 km.

Day 7 - Wednesday, November 20: Full-day excursion to Agrigento, a town on the south coast of Sicily, featuring a spectacular collection of very well-preserved Greek temples. This amazing site alone justifies coming to Sicily! Time permitting, we may also visit the excellent local archaeological museum. En route back to Taormina, visit to the Canadian War Cemetery at Agira, an opportunity for your tour guide to tell you about the Canadian army's role in the liberation of the island in 1943.

< One of the fabulous Greek temples of Agrigento

Day 8 - Thursday, November 21: After breakfast, we visit the Villa Comunale a wonderful park bursting with lush vegetation, including palm trees, cacti and many flowers, and sprinkled with Victorian follies; its focal point is a villa originally owned by Lady Florence Trevelyan, a British noblewoman who was forced by Queen Victoria to leave Britain after an affair with the heir to the throne, Edward VII, settled in Taormina in 1884, married the mayor, and lived happily ever after – or did she? To learn more about her, you may want to walk down to Taormina's scenic coastal and beach district for a visit to, or at least a view of, Isola Bella, a wonderful little offshore island, also owned for some time by Lady Trevelyan, who had a villa constructed there; the island is now a museum and should be open to visitors in spite of the late season. It is recommended to return to Taormina and the hotel via cable car.

Day 9 - Friday, November 22: Full-day excursion to the magnificent historical seaport of Syracuse, founded by the ancient Greeks, who turned it into their metropolis on Sicily, rivalling even Athens. Thorough visit to this UNESCO World Heritage Site (<http://whc.unesco.org/en/list/1200>), starting with the wonderful Archaeological Zone, featuring a Greek theatre, a Roman amphitheatre, and the "Ear of Dionysios," a cave set in a lush garden known as the Latomia of Paradise. Then we explore Ortygia, the original Greek settlement, with as highlights the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the romantic Fountain of Arethusa, featuring papyrus reeds, and the Cathedral, a fascinating former temple dedicated to the goddess Athena. Return to Taormina in late afternoon.

Day 10 - Saturday, November 23: Your last full day in Taormina is entirely at leisure. If there is sufficient interest, an optional excursion may be offered to Reggio de Calabria, a town just across the Strait of Messina, for a visit to the Archaeological Museum, home of the world-famous Riace Bronzes, possibly the finest surviving ancient Greek bronze statues (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Riace\_bronzes). This evening, final group dinner in the restaurant of our hotel.

Day 11 - Sunday, November 24: After breakfast, transfer to Catania Airport in time for the departure, around noon, of our return flight to Toronto, via Frankfurt.

Single occupancy supplement: $585

A WORD ABOUT GROUP AIRFARES:

Please note that when booking one of our air inclusive tours, Pauwels Travel has negotiated reduced rates with the airline that we are able to confirm and lock in up to 359 days before travel. While it is wonderful to share the savings and flexibility this provides with you, our valued guests, the privilege does come with some restrictions. In some cases it may not be possible to collect frequent flyer miles, you may not be able to check in online 24 hours before travel, or you may need to try checking in with your ticket number rather than your booking reference and, in almost ALL cases we are not able to offer advanced seat selection.

It is the airline that makes the reservation and has control over the booking so it is their policy, not ours, that prevents us from assigning specific seats. If a request is made, it is passed on to the airline by our staff when they submit the names to the airline, i.e., 30-60 days prior to departure. Calling us several days before you leave will not change this fact nor will getting upset with our staff.

If a certain type of seat is indispensable to you, we suggest that you book our tour on a “land only” basis and make individual flight arrangements, in which case you may be able to get the seat of your choice; Pauwels Travel would be happy to assist you with that reservation at absolutely no additional charge. We will offer you the best fare available, but please note that this can only be done once a tour is a guaranteed departure because your individual airfare’s conditions are likely to involve cancellation penalties.

We thank you in advance for your kind understanding of the above!
